

Night of the Notables Research Foundation Notes		Parent/Guardian Initial: _____  Name: _____
High degree of competence of skills, knowledge and understanding	Considerable competence of skills, knowledge and understanding	Developing good competence of skills, knowledge and understanding	Guidance required to enhance skills, knowledge and understanding
4	3	2	1
→ Language Arts - Reading ♦ The student reads to explore, construct and extend understanding
<input type="checkbox"/> Evidence that you are able to skim, scan and read closely to gather information from your sources. <input type="checkbox"/> Evidence that you are thinking about what you are reading in order to record information.
→ Language Arts - Reading ♦ The student reads to explore, construct and extend understanding → Social Studies ♦ Demonstrates skills and processes for inquiry and research
<input type="checkbox"/> Evidence that you are able to read and locate information to answer your research questions, using text in books (non-fiction, biographies, Internet websites etc).
→ Language Arts - Writing ♦ The student manages and evaluates information and ideas
<input type="checkbox"/> You develop and follow your own plan to access and gather ideas and information. <input type="checkbox"/> You organize and develop ideas and information into print (hand written notes, typed notes on Google Docs, use of graphic organizers to format your information etc). <input type="checkbox"/> You demonstrate the ability to organize ideas and information using a variety of strategies and techniques (comparing and contrasting information and classifying and sorting according to topics and subtopics).
→ Language Arts - Writing ♦ The student writes to develop, organize and express information and ideas ♦ The student manages and evaluates information and ideas
<input type="checkbox"/> Your notes demonstrate that you are able to use note-taking skills to gain an understanding of your Notable. <input type="checkbox"/> You demonstrate that you are able to write proper jot notes (point form, own words, most necessary words to explain the point) as taught in lessons (use the guidelines page you were given).

→ Language Arts - Reading

- ◆ The student constructs meaning and makes connections through a variety of media.

→ Social Studies

- ◆ Demonstrates skills and processes for inquiry and research

- ☐ Evidence that you use a variety of tools to access information (non-fiction books, electronic searches and technology).
- ☐ You record your sources in order to create a final bibliography.

→ Language Arts - Writing

- ◆ The student writes to develop, organize and express information and ideas

→ Social Studies

- ◆ Explores events and issues from different points of view
- ◆ Demonstrates skills and processes for inquiry and research
- ◆ Communicates ideas in an informed and persuasive manner

- ☐ You demonstrate that you are able to explore events and issues connected to your Notable person and the time period, in which, they lived and how this impacted what they did and who they became.
- ☐ You are able to record key information that shows knowledge of the important events or time period in history (context) that would have had influences on your Notable person in their life.

→ Personal Development & Character in Learning

- ◆ Sets and works towards learning goals
- ◆ Engages in learning with confidence and persistence
- ◆ Makes responsible decisions

Responsibility in Learning

- ☐ You consider the guidelines for the time and length of this project and the Night of the Notables date and have an adequate amount of information thus far.
- ☐ You use class time well and/or worked on your project for homework, if required, to ensure enough information was found on your Notable.

→ THINKING ABOUT NEXT TIME...

- ◆ My goal for my Notables Legacy notes is...

